Plaintiff Edwin Zayas complaining through his attorneys from the Law Offices of James E. Bahamonde, respectfully alleges against Defendants:

NATURE OF THE CASE

1. In violation of well-settled, two decade old law, Defendants have chosen not to remove a variety of unlawful architectural barriers, and have instead chosen to exclude Plaintiff and all other disabled persons, who use wheelchairs and scooters, from having access to and use of Defendants' public accommodation.
2. Plaintiff files this action for himself and as an action for those similarly situated, complaining of violations of Title III of the Americans with Disabilities Act, 42 U.S.C. § 12182 (hereinafter "ADA"), New York State Civil Rights Law § 40-c and 40-d, New York State Human Rights Law § 296 et seq., and New York City Human Rights Laws, Admin. Code § 8-107, et seq.
3. Plaintiff seeks damages, declaratory and injunctive relief, as well as fees and costs against the Defendants.

VENUE AND JURISDICTION

4. That at all times hereinafter mentioned, Plaintiff is now, and at all times mentioned in this complaint, a resident of New York, NY.

5. The Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1343, as this action involves federal questions regarding the deprivation of Plaintiff's rights under the ADA.

6. The Court has supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiff's allegations arising from Defendants' state law violations pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a).

7. Venue is proper in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) because a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to this action, alleged herein, occurred in this district.

8. Defendant 110 NINTH AVENUE CORP. is a New York domestic business corporation authorized by the Secretary of the State of New York to do business in New York State with its principal County of business designated as Kings County.

9. Defendant 110 NINTH AVENUE CORP., is the owner of the commercial property which houses the public accommodations named Stella's Pizza, Co Ba, and Alaska Food Market located at 108 9th Ave., New York, NY. The company's actual place of business at 138 Atlantic Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, 11201.

10. Defendant YORK & GEORGEY, INC. d/b/a ALASKA FOOD MARKET is a New York domestic business corporation authorized by the Secretary of the State of New York to do business in New York State with its principal County of business designated as Queens County.

11. Defendant YORK & GEORGEY, INC. does business under the assumed name Alaska Food Market. Alaska Food Market is a grocery store and public accommodation located at 108 9th Ave., New York, NY

12. The jurisdiction of this court is invoked pursuant to 28 U.S.C. Sections 1331 and 2201 and through the Americans with Disabilities Act, 42 U.S.C. § 12181 et seq.

CLASS ACTION

13. Plaintiff brings this suit for declaratory and injunctive relief and, as a class action for all those similarly situated, who, as persons who must use wheelchairs by reason of various disabilities, and who use or desire to use the services and accommodations offered to the public by Defendants, are protected by, and are beneficiaries of the ADA, New York City Human Rights Laws and New York State Human Rights Laws.

14. Plaintiff, complaining for himself and all others similarly situated residents in the City of New York and State of New York hereby alleges: (a) the class is so numerous that joinder of all members, whether otherwise required or permitted, is impracticable; (b) there are questions of law or fact common to the class which predominate over any questions affecting only individual members; (c) the claims or defenses of the representative parties are typical of the claims or defenses of the class; (d) the representative parties will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class; and (e) a class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy.

STATUTORY SCHEME

15. The 2010 United States Census indicates that more than 56.6 million persons in the United States have a disability. The 2010 US Census also indicates that more than 1.39 million New Yorkers have a mobility disability.

16. The ADA, New York State Human Rights Laws, and New York City Human Rights Laws recognize individuals with disabilities as a protected class.

17. It is unlawful for a private entity which owns, leases to or operates a place of public accommodation to discriminate against an individual with a disability.

18. The ADA, New York State Human Rights Laws, and New York City Human Rights Laws requires a public accommodation to be readily accessible to and usable by a disabled individual.

19. Defendants are required to remove all readily achievable barriers which denies a disabled individual with the opportunity to participate in or benefit from services or accommodations on the basis of their disability.

20. Failure to remove all readily achievable architectural barriers is defined as disability discrimination in violation of the ADA, New York State Human Rights Laws, and New York County Administrative Code.

21. The landlord who owns the building that houses a place of public accommodation and the tenant who owns or operates the place of public accommodation have a non-delegable duty to comply with the ADA.

22. The landlord and owner of a property which houses a public accommodation are liable for their tenant's failure to comply with the ADA, New York City Human Rights Laws or New York State Human Rights Laws. Property leases which contain contradictory language is superseded and overruled by the ADA.

23. Discriminatory intent is not required to establish liability under ADA, New York City Human Rights Laws and New York State Human Rights Laws.

24. If an individual with a disability is dissuaded from entering or receiving the services of a public accommodation because of the existence of an architectural barrier, the landlord and tenant will be liable for discrimination.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

25. Plaintiff is paralyzed and cannot walk. As a result he uses a wheelchair for mobility.
